FROM THE DESK OF FR. BILLY DODGE

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love!

This weekend one of our FOCUS missionaries named Kathryn is getting married in the Twin Cities. Normally us priests have to refuse invitations to attend far away weddings because of our full schedules and ministries, but because Kathryn has done a lot to support our ministry Father Sam and I are going to attend her wedding. Father Timothy Reither, the associate pastor at St. Patrick's Onalaska, will be filling in for us this weekend. Father Sam and I will be back for the 11:00 AM Mass at Newman to Baptize and Confirm several people joining the Catholic Church. The Easter Vigil was too early and they needed a little bit more time to prepare themselves. We discerned for them that Pentecost Sunday is an appropriate day to receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist). Please keep these young people in prayer.

AROUND THE COMMUNITY

A Minute with Jesus: The Holy Spirit and the Eucharist
 Even after the Apostles had experienced the Risen Christ, they were afraid. They gathered with Mary on the day of Pentecost and prayed behind locked doors, waiting as instructed for the Gift of the Holy Spirit. After the Holy Spirit descended upon them on Pentecost, the Apostles were no longer afraid and were equipped to fulfill their mission. It is the same for us today. When we receive the Eucharist, we also receive God the Holy Spirit, to abide in the depths of our hearts. If we allow Him, the Spirit of Truth will transform us and we will no longer be afraid, but be equipped with peace and strength for our mission. Let us then prepare for each Eucharistic encounter in the same way the Apostles prepared for Pentecost, "in prayer ... with Mary ..." (Acts 1:14).
 Let's pray this right now and every day this week: The Sequence for Pentecost
 Take a picture on your phone from the Missalette of this beautiful prayer.
